

Air Filtration Room sound clips

There are three sound clips playing in the Air Filtration Room.
These are the transcripts.

1. Going up the Transmitter Tower'

Man's voice:

'The slightly-built young lass announced she wanted to go to the top (of the Transmitter tower) to see what it looks like.
Boy, she speeded up those ladders so fast! There's no way I'm going to admit it but it's too much for a mere man to get to the top! She swung in there in perfect condition, in such good shape, it's like she's just been dropped on top of the tower'.

2. 'Bombing at Bawdsey'

Man's voice, radar blips 'pinging' in the background:

Of course, we're a target. I'm stuck here because an air raid blew my ship. I'm not scared, we've rarely had any bombs landing here.
I get so hungry. I get sausages from the local butcher, and cook them on the power cables that supply the Transmitter towers. They are so hot that the sausages cook beautifully'.

3. Sleeping in the Block

Woman's voice:

'The day is so long spent staring at that tube, so we take turns at having breaks.
It's such a palaver, clearing security in and out of the control block that they've given us a rest area with some camp beds to sleep on.
But I've never been able to bear to do that. It doesn't seem right lying on a bed in the same room as a man you're not even married to, especially with his snoring' (sound of snoring).
